

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

► SPOTLIGHT

BRIAN OLIN

Bay Area President, The New Home Co.

The New Home Co. has promoted Brian Olin to Bay Area president. He will lead the homebuilder as it expands its land acquisition and development in the Bay Area.

Olin joined New Home in 2012. In his previous position as senior vice president, he helped oversee the planning and development of the company's first community in the region, Rose Lane in Larkspur, where 85 residences were sold in late 2014. He also aided in the master-planned community of Orchard Park in San Jose and in a collection of 56 luxury flats in downtown Lafayette.

In his new role, he will oversee planning and development of townhomes, condos, mixed-use neighborhoods and single-family homes in the greater Bay Area.

Olin who has 18 years of experience in the homebuilding industry, previously worked at Greystone Homes and Lennar Corp. He has experience in sales, marketing, project management, land development, entitlements and land acquisition. As division president of Lennar Bay Area Land Division, he was responsible for one of the largest asset portfolios in the nation.

— Allison Fazio

► REAL ESTATE

Jean Lucwick, Nick Saribalis, David Tucker, Nick Svenson and Carolyn Svenson

Lucwick, Saribalis, Tucker, Svenson and Svenson have been hired as realtors by Zephyr Real Estate, in Greenbrae.

Jonathon Hunt

Hunt has been hired as senior financial analyst by Westcore Properties, in Oakland.

James Bennett

Bennett has been promoted to executive vice president and managing partner by Kidder Mathews, in San Francisco. Previously, Bennett was executive vice president.

► LEGAL SERVICES

John F. Cavin

Cavin has been promoted to shareholder by Hoge, Fenton, Jones & Appel, in Pleasanton. Previously, Cavin was counsel.

Alexandra Ciganer

Ciganer has been hired as associate by Buchalter Nemer, in San Francisco.

commercial use